LEADER OF INFLUENCE

Based on the bestselling book, "A Leader Others Will Follow: The Power of Influence." The number one skill required of every leader is Influence. Influence is the very essence of great leadership and without it, leaders can't be effective. With 1 out of every 3 employees disengaged at work, the American Leadership Philosophy doesn't work anymore. Leaders must lead by permission and not just their position.

PAYCHECK TO PURPOSE

Engaging employees in the work they do every day is the single most important way to increase productivity without compromising profit. Today's millennial and modern workforce doesn't just want a paycheck. Employees want their contributions and ideas to matter. Contrary to popular belief, monetary compensation is second to finding a sense of purpose and significance in their work.

PERSONAL LEADERSHIP

Some Contemporary leaders attempt to divorce their private lives from their public responsibilities. However, the reality is that the lives we lead privately affect our leadership performance publicly. This is not speculation, but a principle of fact. Most organizations have focused on "positional leadership" when "personal leadership" is the key to Great positional leadership.

FRIEND,

Let's take this journey of servant leadership together. We all have a hidden leader inside of us and my life purpose is to help you and your organization discover it.

I exist to develop Servant Leaders. Leadership is not a title or a position but who we are. No position or title can ever give us value, but we have to bring value to the position

Whether you realize it or not, you are a servant leader. If you serve your family, serve your community, serve your organization, then you are a servant leader. Let's change the world together.
